The kindergarten department of the John Eaton School in Cleveland Park is closed today as a result of the case of infantile paralysis discovered there.

Two Washington school children, Francis Van Dusen, white, five years old, of 2702 Twenty-seventh street northwest, who attended the kindergarten class at the John Eaton School, and Margarite Sullivan, colored, six years, of 3213 Sherman avenue northwest, who attended the

Society Women Put War Ban on Bridge Whist

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Bridge whist playing by society folks in these strenuous war times is officially banned by the National League for Women's Service. At a Liberty loan meeting the Women's War Department, as the body has come to be officially known, decided that such money-wasting pastimes should be halted at least for the duration of the war.

Bruce School, are stricken with the disease. The Sullivan child is now at Garfield Hospital. Three children who played with the Sullivan child just before she was taken ill have been removed from the Bruce School. The John Eaton kindergarten was closed on Monday by order of the superintendent of schools, acting upon the advice of the Board of Education. The Health Department did not recommend that the kindergarten class be closed. The Bruce School continues open. Teachers at the two schools where the cases were discovered said today that there had been no decrease in the attendance. Authorities at the Health Department said today that every precaution was being taken to prevent the spread of the disease.

WAR DEPARTMENT DIVISIONS HELP TOBACCO FUND

Officials and employees of the cantonment division and the construction and repair division of the War Department today came forward with their contributions to The Washington Times Tobacco Fund. The majority of officials and clerks in these divisions gave freely and liberally to the fund that will provide solid comfort for American soldiers in France. These civilian employees represent the great force of silent workers of war, those who attend to the countless details of organization and preparation before ever an armed host marches out to meet the foe. Many of them have served in military organizations, and they know the value of a real American smoke when an American soldier is "tobacco hungry."

Total of $50.25.
A total of $50.25 was collected in these two divisions of the War Department. Among the contributors were many new employees of the department who have come from their homes in widely separated sections of the country to assist the Government in its great war program. A contributor who sent in a dollar to the fund today expressed the belief that The Washington Times Tobacco Fund is to come to an end shortly, after a certain amount of money has been collected for the purchase of tobacco for the boys "over there."

The promoters of the fund have no thought of terminating it in the immediate future, and those who have been holding back for fear that their contributions would not be received by the soldiers of America who are preparing to go into the trenches need hesitate no longer about sending in their donations.

120 Germans Apiece.
Beattie B. Barkley, of 620 Third street northwest, wrote to The Times today that she wants the tobacco from her contribution sent to two young Americans who have each promised to kill 120 Germans apiece for her. This is rather a high goal for the youths to aim for, but they will be better prepared to achieve their aims if their spare moments are whiled away in smoking the kind of tobacco that gives American soldiers real cheer.

Today is the psychological time to make a contribution to the fund. Tomorrow you may forget it, but there can be no excuse for your failure to contribute something at once. The smallest contribution will be that much more to a rapidly growing fund.

Additional Contributions.
Contributions thus far received for The Washington Times Tobacco Fund include:

$9,000,000,000 MORE NEEDED BY U. S. BY JUNE 30

Two more issues of Liberty bonds, in addition to the present one, will be necessary during the fiscal year, or before June 30 next, to meet the war expenses of the Government at the present rate of expenditure.

If the present issue is subscribed to the maximum of $5,000,000,000, and officials of the Government and of the banks throughout the country are optimistic that it will be, Treasury officials estimate that an additional $9,000,000,000 will be needed to carry the Government over the fiscal year.

America Is War's Great Banker.
America is now financing the war to a greater extent than any of the allies, and there is every confidence that this country will be able to maintain this role without impairment of the nation's resources.

Congress has authorized expenditures of nearly $22,000,000,000 for all purposes of Government during the fiscal year, and for prosecution of the war.

The best estimates obtainable from all of the departments, however, indicate that actual expenditures, including loans to the allies of the full authorization of $7,000,000,000 will not exceed $30,000,000,000.

$13,000,000,000 Year's Cost to U. S.
This will place the actual expenditures of this country for the year at $13,000,000,000.

Approximately $4,000,000,000 of this sum will be brought in by the old and the new war revenue acts.

Two billion has already been given by the people in the first Liberty bond issue and $5,000,000,000 more is expected in the present issue. This will bring receipts to $11,000,000,000. The other $9,000,000,000 will have to be made up in bond issues, war savings certificates, or other short credits.

PRESIDENT DENIES BRYAN HAD 'TIP' ON LUSITANIA

The source of Senator La Follette's inspiration for his accusation of the Lusitania sinking is to be investigated to the bottom by the special "disloyalty" investigating committee. President Wilson today has added his denial to La Follette's declaration in St. Paul that W. J. Bryan was the President who had the liner carried ammunitions and urged that its sailing be prohibited.

A letter from Chairman Pomeroy of the committee, is on its way to Bryan today. It is expected to draw from the former Secretary of State confirmation of his denial already unofficially received here.

The committee indicated it would insist on La Follette giving the source of his information and his reasons, for ignoring this Government's evidence.

G. W. U. GIRLS TO SING NEW COLLEGE SONGS

Two new college songs for George Washington University have been composed, and will be sung for the first time tonight at a party for girl students of the nine departments to be given by the Woman's University Club in the club's quarters at 2027 G street northwest.

Miss Martha McGrew will introduce freshman girls to the college yells and to the new college songs. Stunts will be contributed by members of the various classes. The chairman of class organizations is Miss Freshman, Polly Voorhees; sophomore, Margaret Smith; and junior, Eugenia Wiltberger.

TREASURY PLANS FOR READY CASH RELIEF

The Treasury Department has offered $300,000,000 in 4 per cent short-term certificates of indebtedness. This is to furnish ready cash until funds from the second Liberty loan are received.

More than one and one-half billion dollars worth of these certificates have been issued. Four per cent is an increase in the interest rate.

BRIDES' KITCHENS DESERTED, QUICK LUNCHES INDICATE

The ever increasing number of lunch rooms in Washington which keep open day and night and where the hungry rush and devour food in record time has set Col. William A. Kroll, marriage license clerk of the District, to thinking on the subject.

Colonel Kroll is deeply interested in the question of marriage and the resultant establishment of households and the raising of families. Colonel Kroll himself is a married man and the father of children and knows all the blessings that flow from a real home where home cooking is the order of the day. Quick lunch rooms do not particularly appeal to him.

Where "Mother" Is Vied With.
"It has always been my impression that when a man gets married he settles down in his own little home and that this place presided over by his wife should have such a thing as a kitchen, or at least a kitchenette, where she may practice her culinary accomplishments to the delectation of her loving spouse."

"The large number of quick lunch rooms in this city which are increasing with alarming speed everywhere leads me to believe that the art of home cooking is much neglected and that mere man prefers to seek his favorite lunch room haunt to still the pangs of hunger to the well-meant cuisine of his own half."

"One should think that with a record year for marriage licenses such as this is, there should be a correspondingly large number of new homes, but such does not seem to be the case."

Lack of Interest Noted.
"The great number of new lunch rooms signify to me the lack of interest on the part of the wives or boarding house keepers in that most important of all functions—the proper feeding of those entrusted to their keeping."

"Instead of taking up the study of typewriting, music, law or other branches of learning prospective brides should take up a course of domestic science along lines laid down by Mr. Hoover. I am sure this would prove more satisfactory to their husbands and the nation would benefit thereby."

SOUSA'S BAND TO BE HERE NEXT SATURDAY

That the Navy Department will bring the Great Lakes Naval Training Station Band, headed by Lieut. John Philip Sousa, to Washington in the interest of naval recruiting next Saturday was announced this morning by Lieut. L. E. Morgan of the naval recruiting station, 206 Ninth street northwest.

The band will give two concerts in this city—one in the forenoon at the Capitol and the other in the afternoon at the Ellipse. Plans for a parade are also being made by the Navy Department.

These concerts will be held under the direct auspices of the Navy Department, as the Red Cross and various other local organizations to whom the services of the band were offered could make no satisfactory arrangements.

Sousa's Band, as it is popularly known, is composed of 232 regularly enlisted men.

WOMEN RUN DENVER CARS.

DENVER, Col., Oct. 10.—If the best experiment in any criterion, street railway motorwomen and conductresses will prove decidedly popular in this Rocky Mountain metropolis, in preparation for a possible shortage of men on account of the war, the local tramway company made a trial run with a complete crew of the fair sex. Miss Clara Henderson, in cap and uniform, handled the brakes, while Miss Irene Nordburg, rolled up in regulation garb, pulled the bell cord.
